

2015 BENJAMIN FRANKLIN TRANSATLANTIC FELLOWS SUMMER INSTITUTE

Have you ever thought about spending the summer in the United States? Are you interested in issues that impact the youth of today? Then the Benjamin Franklin Transatlantic Fellowship Summer Institute (BFTF) could be right for you!

BFTF is a unique and exciting program that caters to young people (16 to 18 years of age) looking to build connections with their peers in the United States and Europe. The program and all expenses are paid for by the U.S. Department of State and hosted by Wake Forrest University and Purdue University.

- Explore American culture and politics
- Understand how young people interact with the media, both as consumers and producers of information
- Understand how freedom of expression carries both rights and responsibilities for citizens
- Take a leadership role as community activists with an increased sense of self-worth and confidence in your ability to effect positive change
- Develop your skills of advocacy, negotiation, critical thinking and leadership

 OPEN FOR

March 2nd
